

The Wellness World includes the following:

wellness reception, corridor (passage to the upper terrace of the pool area), changing rooms with showers, massage rooms, swimsuit sauna, naturist sauna area (saunas, common areas, Japanese pool, Kneipp stepping pool, Cork relaxation room), Cleopatra relaxation room.

The services of the Wellness World can be used by everyone according to their purpose, at their own risk and responsibility.

The saunas can be used according to the posted sauna rules and those found on the website.

Massage treatments in the Wellness World are available for an additional fee. Descriptions of massages and price lists can be found on our website, at the wellness reception.

The use of slippers is mandatory in the dressing and shower area, corridor, and in front of the saunas. The use of slippers is prohibited in all saunas except the steam cabin!

Individuals with a fever or infectious diseases are not allowed to enter the sauna area.

For each guest, upon purchasing an admission ticket, we provide 1 sheet at the wellness reception. The fee for each additional sheet is HUF 300, payable at the reception. The sauna program/session fee does not include a sauna sheet!

Children under 16 years of age are not allowed to enter the naturist sauna area.

The use of the swimsuit/rose sauna is not recommended for those under 12 years of age.

The dressing rooms and corridor are not naturist areas, so it is mandatory to cover intimate body parts (with a robe, towel, sauna sheet, sauna attire) here!

In the naturist sauna area, the use of swimsuits is not allowed in the saunas, and the use of a sauna sheet or sauna attire is mandatory.

We ask our guests to always cover body-contact surfaces of sauna benches with sheets provided by the bath! It is forbidden to come into contact with sauna benches naked!

The Relaxation Whirlpool (Japanese pool) can only be used without a swimsuit for hygiene reasons.

Guests using the Wellness World are provided with unlimited water consumption from the vending machine in the relaxation area.

Please report any technical/operational issues to our colleagues as soon as possible for prompt repair.
